Extract from the Orders of His Excellency The Commander in Chief, Head Quarters Philadelphia Jany 18th 1782 — The Operating Force of the Army having suffered great Diminution by the Number of Soldiers made use of as Servants by Persons of different Denominations not immediately connected with the Line

The General anxious to have the Regiments in the most connected State and as respectable as possible at the Opening of the ensuing Campaign, Orders that in future no Person belonging to the civil Staff be permitted to take a Soldier as a Servant, & that those Gentlemen in that Department who now have such Return them to their Several Regiments or Corps on or before the 1st Day of April next by which Time he hopes they will be able to provide themselves otherwise without Inconvenience

Officers

Officers Commanding Corps are desired to pay particular Attention to this Order, and are directed immediately to recall such of their Men as are absent without proper Authority especially those who are with Officers who have retired from the Service — The General is astonished to find by the Returns that some of the Absentees are accounted for in the Manner last Mentioned —

Head Quarters Philadelphia Jany 19th 1782 —

Commanding Officers of Regiments & Corps are not in future to furnish Servants or Waggoners from their Corps on any Pretence whatever without an express Order from the Commander in Chief or Commanding Officer of the Army — Officers actually belonging to the Reg: or Corps & serving with them are to be allowed Servants from their respective Corps in the following Proportion viz.
